

KAI PAYNTER

Kai Paynter is an American Performance coach, currently based in Sydney and is a local in Los Angeles. She is an MFA graduate of one of the top 10 US Acting Graduate programs - University of California, Irvine. She also holds a degree from Purdue University in Political Science.

Kai studied alongside Grace Byers, Kara Song Wang, Sepideh Moafi, and at Purdue University, graduates included John Lovitz and Sir Bill Duke. She started her performing career as a singer, travelling nationally and internationally, as a featured soloist with PMO.

Some of Kai's clients include: Kiki Masella (ABCs, Grace besides Me), Luke Patrick & Courtney Louise (Shortland Street), Willow Speers (7 Network, Packed to the Rafters), Jacob Haren (Book of Mormon, US National Tour), Rachelle Rose Clark (Anything Goes, US National Tour) and Mackenzie Thomas.

Kai's teaching & coaching background is diverse with an expertise in the study of human behavior, solution-strategy and performance optimization. Her work spans across most industries, with a specialty in mental strength training for athletes, all facets of actor training, and career growth for creatives.